

European Commission: Home Affairs

EUROPA European Commission Home Affairs Newsroom Public consultations

DG HOME at a glance

Policies

Documentation
centre

Newsroom

Tenders

Funding

Commissioner

Public consultations

Latest news

Public consultations

EU initiatives made simple

EU law monitoring

Title	Consultation on the the right to family reunification of third-country nationals living in the EU (Directive 2003/86/EC)
Policy field(s)	Home Affairs; Immigration; Integration
Target group(s)	We welcome contributions from all EU institutions, national, regional and local authorities, candidate countries, third-country partners, intergovernmental and non-governmental organisations All state actors and private service providers involved with family members, academia, social partners, civil society organisations and individuals are also invited to contribute by replying to the questions enclosed in the Green Paper
Period of consultation	From 15 November 2011 to 1 March 2012
Objective of the consultation	The aim of the consultation is to collect opinions on how to have more effective rules on family reunification at EU level and to provide factual information and data on the application of the Directive.
View the consultation document	Green paper Public consultation on the the right to family reunification of third-country nationals living in the EU  [66 KB]
Contact details	Responsible service: Directorate-General for Home Affairs Unit B1 – Immigration and Integration Unit E-mail: HOME-family-reunification-green-paper@ec.europa.eu Postal address: Immigration and Integration Unit – "Green Paper on Family reunification" Directorate-General for Home Affairs European Commission B - 1049 Brussels
	protection of personal data specific privacy statement

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL
Home Affairs

Last update: 14 November 2011 | Back to top